NASA's InSight Mars Landing

Monday, November 26
11a.m. - 12:30p.m.

Join us as we watch the live broadcast of NASA's attempt to land the Mars InSight spacecraft on the surface of the Red Planet. Tasked with the mission of studying the deep interior of Mars, NASA's InSight lander needs to successfully complete an insane six-minute sequence of events before it can begin its job.
